

Terms and Conditions of Use of CoinChat

1. General

This Telegram bot allows users to check the current price of cryptocurrencies and set price target alerts through the Kraken API. By using this bot, the user agrees to these terms and conditions.

2. Service Use

- The bot provides real-time cryptocurrency price information based on the Kraken API.
- Users can set price target alerts and will receive automatic notifications when the specified price is reached.
- The bot is provided "as is," without any express or implied warranties regarding the availability, accuracy, or reliability of the service.

3. Data Responsibility

- The bot uses an SQLite database to manage information related to price alerts and query history.
- Data integrity or continuous availability is not guaranteed.
- Users are responsible for configuring and using the alerts properly. The developer assumes no responsibility for financial losses resulting from the use of the bot.

4. Privacy

- The bot does not collect personal information beyond what is necessary for its operation (e.g., Telegram ID and price alert preferences).
- Data is stored locally in the SQLite database and is not shared with third parties.

5. Limitations and Disclaimers

- The bot relies on the Kraken API to provide real-time prices. There is no guarantee of data accuracy or timeliness due to potential delays or API failures.
- The bot should not be used as a financial advisory tool. Users are solely responsible for their investment decisions.
- The developer is not liable for any capital loss or loss of profit arising from the use of the bot or any technical failure.

6. Modifications

- The developer reserves the right to modify the terms and conditions at any time. Updates will be posted on the same channel where the bot is offered.

7. Contact
